

中2英 問題

- 2 次の英文は、あるジャーナリストのブラジルからのレポートです。これを読んで、1～4の問いに答えなさい。

Young boys in Brazil love soccer. When I visited Brazil, I saw many boys in the back streets. They were playing soccer. I heard their shouts even in the rain. Many boys in Brazil would like to play professional soccer. Pele is their hero.

When he was a young boy, Pele was poor. He and his friends did not have a soccer ball. So they made their own ball and played with it.

In 1955, Pele became a professional soccer player. Over the next few years, he became famous all over the world.

When he was playing, many people stopped work, and watched him on TV.

Pele became a top soccer player. But he did not forget his poor days. He often worked for the poor children of Africa and Latin America. Pele gave them A for the future.

Today people play soccer in over 140 countries. It is very popular in Japan, too.

Soccer is not just a game for the people in Brazil. It is a part of their life.

- * shouts 叫び声 even ～でさえ hero 英雄 own 自分自身の over ～を越えて
just ただ～なだけ part 一部 life 人生

- 1 次の質問に対する最も適する答えを、それぞれア、イ、ウ、エの中から一つ選んで、その記号を書きなさい。

(1) Where do many boys in Brazil play soccer?

- ア Playgrounds.
- イ Soccer stadium.
- ウ The back streets.
- エ His school.

(2) Why does Pele work for the poor children?

- ア Because he likes children.
- イ Because he didn't forget his poor days.
- ウ Because he became famous and poor.
- エ Because he lives in Brazil.

